The humble petition of Krishnappa retired Sheristdar of Sodaballapur Taluq:—

Most respectfully Sheweth:—

1 That he was retired on pension some time ago, and in consideration of his long service for 40 years and of his respectability & the Revenue Commissioner was on the representation made by petitioner, pleased to recommend to the Government that his pension may be calculated on the 3 years' average of pay a concession generally shown to many officials.

2 That the Government order No.
1373/PTA dated 11th January 1904 just to hand sanction that his pension shall be calculated under the rules, which the petitioner understands gives him no concession over the 3 years average calculation.

3. That therefore he humbly begs your honour may be pleased to sanction the concession rate of pension recommended by the revenue commissioner or be given his pension as under section 680 of the mysore Service regulations

For which act of mercy
he shall ever pray.

Your most obedient and humble servant.
